WANTAGH, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, December 12, 2018 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Have you ever wanted to play on the same courts as professional tennis players? Do you want to experience playing on the beach in the middle of winter? What about meeting and getting an autograph from a professional player? The 2019 New York Tennis Expo will have all of this and much more, and is completely FREE to attend.

Bring the whole family down to NYCB LIVE, Home of the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum on Saturday, February 9 as the New York Tennis Expo arrives to kick off the 2019 New York Open, Long Island's own ATP World Tour tournament.

The 2019 New York Open will play host to some of the best tennis players in the world, including sixth-ranked Kevin Anderson, ninth-ranked John Isner, former Wimbledon semifinalist Sam Querrey, and the all-time greatest doubles team of Bob & Mike Bryan.

There will be professional tennis players from the tournament on-site during the Expo to sign autographs, take part in meet-and-greets and lend a hand at the New York Open Draw Ceremony.

"We are excited over presenting the New York Tennis Expo and New York Open 2.0 so to speak," said GF Sports Executive Vice President and New York Open Tournament Director Josh Ripple. "When we reflect on the 2018 New York Open, it was clear that the New York Tennis Expo successfully seeded the week which afforded kids, adults and sports and recreational companies locally and regionally a chance to be exposed to the new NYCB LIVE, our signature black courts and plain old fun and value that United Sports Publications brought to the party."

The Kids Zone will feature a bounce house, face-painting, balloon animals, and other games and activities.
