EINPresswire.com/ -- Born in New York, Micah was raised in a musically talented family, playing in bands with his brothers throughout high school. He graduated from Baruch College with a Bachelor's degree in business administration and began a career that would take him around the world and back. Having seen the world, Micah has learned to live a life of joy by waking up every day passionate about every moment in front of him.

“Choosing happiness in both work and my personal life was the greatest lesson I have ever learned,” explained Micah Raskin. “It’s been the constant throughout my entire life. I help businesses every day realize that their employees will be much happier if they have a sense of purpose in their lives, and often times it starts right at work.”

Micah Raskin challenges everyone he meets to find their passion. This is the ultimate baseline for everything you will do in your life, and when a business or person starts to think about giving back, they have a greater sense of purpose by doing it with passion. Everyone should feel empowered to chase their dreams, and in doing so, you’ll open your heart up to a world of giving you didn’t know existed.

Micah Raskin also reminds businesses to encourage their employees to give their time, not just their pocketbooks.

“Showing up and serving people in person is a life-changing experience that provides you with a deeper sense of purpose,” explains Micah Raskin. “I can’t overstate the importance of giving your time to those who need it the most.”

Over the decades Micah Raskin has partnered with a number of great charities and even started his own, and he often reminds businesses just how important it is to find reputable organizations to give your time and money to. It’s important to find charities that have a vision for the future, like Charity Water. This ensures that your efforts are going to actually help those who need it most.

Whether volunteering at the local soup kitchen, or shelter, Micah Raskin encourages everyone to take the leap of serving, and there is no greater time to start than the holidays.
