

Blockchain Chats now starts operation in Hong Kong

TiENCHAT is a free app with end-to-end encrypted chats, instant translations, social media features, and a loyalty rewards program that is unparalleled.

CYBERPORT, HONG KONG, HONG KONG, December 16, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- TiENPAY has developed this app and partnered Carnival Assets Management trading as TiENCHAT

This blockchain powered social media software has been trialed as Alpha version since August 2018 with the first beta version having been released publicly on December 12, 2018 on the Google Play Store (Apple iOS version will be available before December 20, 2018). Additional features in the next three months will include upgrades and integration with partners from Cryptyk, ecommerce, prepaid cards, Charities, DizPay (a digital asset payment gateway), and more.

Group chat membership users (VIP users) are prepaid with a subscription fee from 2000, 5000, to 10,000 USD allowing the VIP members to have 1000, 3000, and 10,000 users in their groups consecutively. These VIP members go through all regulatory KYC and AML procedures and can choose to have their groups sponsored by related merchant data and advertisement. With these group chats, admins and members can earn loyalty rewards. Every user in TiENCHAT can enjoy daily lucky rewards which can be used in exchange for all products and services within the TiENCHAT platform. All activities conducted on the platform are lawful and securely registered on the TiENPAY proprietary Blockchain enabling a transparent and accountable transaction ledger.

The app launch officially on December 18th, 2018 have been gaining a lot of attention from Asian ecommerce merchants, celebrities, and influencers because of both the attention rewards scheme (ARS) for users with the daily lucky loyalty rewards as well as the instant translation which can bridge the gap narrowing group chat without barriers.

When asked where the idea came from, William , founder and CEO said "Since the launch of our mobile wallet in 2016, our global presence has been expanding and we noticed a demand for better communication that bridges the language barriers in today's globalized world with instant translations."

About TiENPAY

A Hong Kong FinTech and Blockchain developer company with a mobile wallet since 2016 that also built two separate exchanges; one for a Hong Kong company and one for an Australian company in 2017. TiENPAY is also diligently working on a deep learning AI Bot and has also developed its own proprietary Blockchain software written in java.

About TiENCHAT

End to end encrypted chat and social media app with digital asset trading features and underlying third party apps functioning within it including prepaid cards, utilities, and mobile top ups globally. On top of all that, there is training and educational media, IoT, merchants, mall, charity, and events. The whole platform will run on a proprietary Blockchain known as TiEN CHAIN by 2019.
