

British Adventurer Graham Hughes' "Man of the World" Named to Kirkus Reviews' Best of 2018

LIVERPOOL, MERSEYSIDE, ENGLAND, December 17, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- "Man of the World", book one of The Odyssey Expedition, by British author and travel adventurer Graham Hughes was recently named to Kirkus Reviews' Best of 2018 as among the top books of the year. The book also received a starred review from Kirkus, which called the book "a riveting journey recounted by an irrepressible, highly likable narrator."

Covering the first 139 countries & territories of The Odyssey Expedition, "Man of the World" is much more than a travelogue; it's an epic tale of grit and humor, dizzying highs and crushing lows, a snapshot of the world seen through the eyes of a man who "eats impossible for breakfast".

"With over 100,000 words and 170 illustrations, the book is almost as epic as the record breaking journey itself... and being named to Kirkus' top books of 2018 is the cherry on top of the cake." said Graham.
