Palo Alto, CA – January 28, 2018 – A new in depth study from the Radicati Group provides use data statistics and four-year forecasts for business and consumer adoption of Social Networking. The study includes data on the worldwide number of Social Networking users and accounts, broken out by region for North America, Europe, Asia/Pacific and Rest of World (RoW). It also provides data on business and consumer daily use and time spent on Social Networking sites.

Social networking use is still showing explosive growth with both consumer and business users on a worldwide basis. Consumer social networking accounts still make up the great majority of worldwide social networking accounts, however, over the next four years, enterprise social networking solutions are expected to show stronger growth.
