The philosopher Fabiano de Abreu

Donald (don411.com, USA) acclaimed Fabiano and recognized that he is also, in their respective countries, the greatest creator of characters for the press.

Some of the characters created by Fabiano for the press: Fernanda Colombo (The muse of the arbitrage), Sue Lasmar ("The Most Perfect Body of the United States"), Fabi Martinez (Musa of Paraguay in the Copa America), Adi Cudz (Angolan singer), Eric Santos (Portuguese actor), Gabi Castrovinci (Total Nonstop Action Wrestling), Luciane Serifovic (Luxury Real Estate Broker and Diva Fitness WBFF) and Gabi Lodewijks (Dutch Chef and Nutrition Coach) are some of the names Fabiano has made famous abroad.

His company's expansion from Brazil to the United States, Portugal, Angola and Chile, due to his success as a publicist may have an explanation. Fabiano is considered as one of the most intelligent men in the world, with an IQ score higher than 180. He's a member of Mensa, the international society of geniuses with above-average IQs and his test points him as an "extremely creative person", that may explain the amount of characters he created.

"I met Fabiano during the World Cup in Brazil, 2012. As a TV producer for international channels I needed to schedule interviews with Brazilian artists, sportspeople, politicians and businessmen. Fabiano always had great figures available for our interviews. I relied on Fabiano's excellent contacts to conduct interviews and special programs for important international TV channels. Since then, whenever I need contacts with renowned Brazilian figures, whether in sports, culture or politics, I always turn to Fabiano, as it is a guarantee pledge to make successful notes, interviews and reports for radio, magazines, newspapers or TV". (Christian Montecinos, LaCuarta, Chile).

"Fabiano has always provided us lots of characters, fitness models and celebrities for our magazine. He is the greatest creator of celebrities I've ever seen" (Ruben - SLAM Magazine, United States).
