

Genesis Communications Creates Innovative Content Studio in Westshore District

Genesis Communications announced today that it has acquired new office space in the westshore business district of Tampa.

TAMPA, FL, UNITED STATES, December 19, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Genesis Communications announced today that it has acquired new office space in the westshore business district of Tampa. The space will include innovative content facilities for new media producers, broadcast studios for AM 820 News Tampa Bay AM, 1040 Sports Talk Florida, and 98.3 FM Pinellas County, and office space for Genesis Communications corporate staff. The space was intently designed to position Genesis Communication as a leader in the next generation of content production and influencer marketing.

Genesis Communications is owned and operated by media executive, Bruce Maduri. Mr. Maduri is a leading thought leader on digital and traditional media. Over the last several years there has been a shift of creative content production from large companies to individual creators, influencers, and YouTubers. The new content studio is designed to embrace the shift and provide high quality studio access to both large media firms and individual creators.

I am very excited about our new studio, it will serve as a collaborative space for some of the best minds in media”

Bruce Maduri, CEO of Genesis Communications

The space will serve as a prototype for a larger vision Mr. Maduri has of creating a nationally recognized production facility for film, television, and new media. He is currently searching for a building that meets the needs of the project and is in discussion with several investment partners.

“I am very excited about our new studio,” said Bruce Maduri, CEO of Genesis Communications. “It will serve as a collaborative space for some of the best minds in media.”
