

Grammy Awards Receive Recognition by RahTwoFive in Song "Super Winner"

Grammy Awards Receive Recognition in Song "Super Winner" by RahTwoFive, and Thanks from the Artist for Bringing Diversity

MALIBU, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Grammy Awards® have received recognition in one of rap and hip hop's most feel-good new songs; "Super Winner" by artist RahTwoFive. The artist further thanked The Recording Academy™ today on their support of inclusion and diversity.

Born and raised in the United States, RahTwoFive started his creative arts career as a fashion designer, graduating from the Fashion Institute of Design & Merchandising in Los Angeles. Influenced by a diverse array of artists, from Kayne West and Drake to Michael Jackson, RahTwoFive went on to work with Detroit internet star and Kid's Choice Award Winner Jay Hilfigerrr, releasing their hot new song and video titled "Fire." With his song "Super Winner," RahTwoFive memorializes the importance of the Grammys® not only to him, but to the music industry at large.

Having announced this year's Grammy® nominees for 2018, The Recording Academy™ will celebrate for the first time, eight nominees in each of the General Field categories including: Record Of The Year, Album Of The Year, Song Of The Year, and Best New Artist. The 61st Annual Grammy Awards® will be presented by The Recording Academy™ on Sunday, February 10th, 2019, live from Los Angeles' Staples Center, and on TV on CBS from 8:00–11:30 p.m. Eastern, 7:00–10:30 p.m. Central, and 5:00–8:30 p.m. Pacific.

The Recording Academy™ has reaffirmed its commitment to music creators across all facets of our industry.”

Neil Portnow; Recording Academy™ President and CEO

Recording Academy™ President and CEO Neil Portnow states, "Reflection, reevaluation, and implementation have been the driving forces at the Recording Academy over the past year. From convening our Task Force On Diversity & Inclusion, and launching our new community-driven membership model, to increasing the number of nominees in the General Field, and to playing a leadership role in the successful passage of the landmark Music Modernization Act, the Recording Academy™ has reaffirmed its commitment to music creators across all facets of our industry.”

With his Indian and American roots, RahTwoFive thanks The Recording Academy™ for their continued legacy of excellence in music, and expansion in the areas of diversity. RahTwoFive's multi-cultural ties are dynamically exemplified in the ethnic mix of his sound; seamlessly blending genres of pop, rap, hip-hop, jazz, world-beat, and R&B, among more. Working with many of his genres' artists and producers at the top of their game, RahTwoFive's recent single "Super Winner" is an anthem to success, and doing the right thing. The unforgettable rap song's shout out to the Grammys® is as memorable as it is fitting for such a time in the evolution of music's greatest awards show.

Recording Academy President and CEO Mr. Portnow states, "It's our awards process that has taken a front seat during this evolutionary period to ensure the Grammy Awards® reflect the ever-changing needs of the creative community. We are proud of this year's nominations results and congratulate all of the talented and deserving nominees."

RahTwoFive states of the show; "I want to congratulate every artist on their nomination so far. There is nothing bigger than The Grammys®, and no better award show in music. It is a great honor for anyone to be a part of."
