

Order Best High Performance Technology Online—New Website Announced by Ace Technology Partners

Ace Technology Partners just announced a new website for ordering the best high performance technology online.

CHICAGO, ILL., U.S., December 27, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ace Technology Partners just announced a new website for ordering top technology online. This is the first venture into online sales for the highly successful 35-year-old company.

The new site features:

- A user-friendly experience with intuitive navigation
- Streamlined shopping
- Easy ordering
- Secure checkout
- Fast shipping
- And much more.

Ace Technology Partners CEO John Samborski said, "Basically this site encapsulates everything that Ace Technology Partners' clients value about our company with the exception of engineering expertise. We look at this as a compliment to the technology solutions we have been offering since 1983 to both public and private sector clients."

At the site, shoppers will find a full range of technology types, components and accessories from the top technology manufacturers in the world such as Panasonic, Microsoft, Samsung, Lenovo, Dell, HP, Canon, Kodak Alaris, Supermicro, NVIDIA, Asus, SonicWall, Seagate, Eaton, Cyberpower, ATEN, Tripp Lite, Black Box Networks, Coolmax, Fluke Networks, Ergotron, Insteon, Kensington, Okidata, Axiom, Acer, CRU Dataport, Icy Dock, Logitech, Netgear, Belkin, Viewsonic, Zebra Tech, TP-Link and many more. In addition, shoppers will find leading-edge Ace Computers technology.

We look at this as a compliment to the technology solutions we have been offering since 1983 to both public and private sector clients.”

The site offers over 100,000 items with new products added every day. Planned product launches include Cadyce networking and connectivity solutions. Ace Technology Partners is a Woman-Owned Small Business with a broad understanding of government contracting. "Many of our existing clients have asked from time to time about being able to shop on our site," Samborski said. "So we created a site for the convenience for our existing clients and to draw in new clients that are looking for an experienced government contractor that understands the procurement process.”

The new ecommerce site is located at: <https://store.acetechpartners.com/>.
