Clients are invited to join KDG for a look back at everything they helped accomplish over the year.

"The year-in-review isn't a list of the things KDG has accomplished," explains Nicole Kutos, associate UI/UX designer at KDG. "It's a look back at everything we have accomplished alongside our clients."

We are excited to take a look back at the year's accomplishments, and we are thankful for this opportunity to recognize the clients who helped us get to this point."

Kyle David, President and CEO

Some highlights of the year-in-review include a sneak peak at the company's new headquarters, a map of current clients, and a list of awards KDG has been recognized with.

"2018 was a year of tremendous growth for us," says Kyle David, president and CEO of KDG. "We are excited to take a look back at the year's accomplishments, and we are thankful for this opportunity to recognize the clients who helped us get to this point."
