

Dan 'Tito' Davis launches the audiobook of the bestselling "Gringo: My Life on the Edge as an International Fugitive"

Award Winning Author, Dan 'Tito' Davis, launches the audiobook version of his bestselling memoir, "Gringo: My Life on the Edge as an International Fugitive"

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, December 24, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dan Tito Davis is an award-winning bestselling author of the book "Gringo." Once released 'Gringo' became an instant bestseller and true to form with the new release of the audiobook it all topped the bestselling Amazon charts the on the official date of launch. With over 215 + reviews and worldwide attention, "Gringo" is simply the "Must Read" and now the "Must Listen To" book of the year.

"Gringo" has been a best-selling e-book on Amazon multiple times this year; the audiobook release follows that trend, reaching the top 50 audiobooks on the release day. The audiobook release also drove the ebook sales back into a #1 sales rank in multiple categories.

During an interview with Digital Journal, Dan 'Tito' Davis was asked: "While you were working on the audiobook, did you get any new insights into your story?"

“

I am humbled by the readers responses to my story and the new opportunity to reach new readers and listeners through the audiobook version”

Dan "Tito" Davis

His response was intriguing, "It had been a long time since I had read Gringo: My Life on the Edge as an International Fugitive. It was refreshing to hear my story told by the narrator, after pushing it away for quite some time. As far as insights, I realized how unique of an adventure my story is. It made me think how fortunate I am to be sitting here, hearing my own life story. How abnormal it is from the usual autobiography. My life was truly on the edge."

About Dan 'Tito' Davis

Dan Davis was born in South Dakota. He was on the wrestling team in high school and became a professional horse jockey afterward. Davis began selling legal ephedrine pills (white crosses) in 1972, starting with Black Hills State College, before transferring to the University of Nevada, Las Vegas where Davis supplied legal ephedrine pills to the Bandidos Motorcycle Club. He spent five years in prison during the 1980s for tax fraud and then thirteen years on the run from a drug charge for which he was innocent. Eventually caught and illegally renditioned from Venezuela back to the United States, Tito served a new prison term and wrote "Gringo" while waiting for release. Now a free man, Davis is on a world tour promoting his book and his story of redemption.

The audiobook of "Gringo: My Life on the Edge as an International Fugitive" as well as the ebook are currently available on Amazon.

Dan "Tito" Davis can be contacted at <http://gringobook.com>. His books can be purchased on Amazon, Audible and other online retailers.

Heidi Komlofske-Rojek
City Book Review
+1 855-741-8810
email us here
Visit us on social media:
Facebook
Twitter

---

This press release can be viewed online at: <http://www.einpresswire.com>

Disclaimer: If you have any questions regarding information in this press release please contact the company listed in the press release. Please do not contact EIN Presswire. We will be unable to assist you with your inquiry. EIN Presswire disclaims any content contained in these releases. © 1995-2019 IPD Group, Inc. All Right Reserved.