

Fran Briggs Releases The Best of Winter Reading, 2018

Genres include romance, suspense, children's, health and wellness, spiritual, urban literature, and science-fiction

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, December 26, 2018 /EINPresswire.com/ -- There's only one thing readers love more than reading books in the winter, and that's the list which highlights some of the best of winter reading. Award-winning journalist, Fran Briggs announced The Best of Winter Reading, 2018, today. Honorees were nominated by submissions from the authors, or their management.

"The Best of Winter Reading is organized by author, publisher, a short synopsis of the book, and a link for additional information and purchase," explained Fran Briggs. "Readers can look forward to thoroughly-developed plots and action-provoking, instruction. Genres include romance; suspense; health and wellness; spiritual; urban literature; children's, and science fiction."

Briggs added that the selections showcase originality, creativity, impact, originality, influence, and quality.

"It's not a list of 'greatest hits,' but rather the best among winter reading in 2018. In every case, the pages will turn quickly," she concluded.
