"I've taken classes at Bindupoint, and I especially love the Opening class series and the Sound Bath. I can feel the sound resonating throughout my whole body, and the insights I gain during the session are incredible. My wife loves the classes too, and I can see a real difference in her. I can sincerely say that I highly recommend these classes to all who are interested." -Q

Bindupoint is a center dedicated to the illumination, nurturing, and development of one's most inner being. Bindu is the source of cosmic potency. It is a point that we orient ourselves towards by learning stillness through guided meditation. Stillness nurtures our peaceful nature. It helps us to rejuvenate and integrate the restless and fragmented mind, promoting inner peace.
