

MIKHA'EL - Filming underway on 1st historically accurate docudrama on the Archangel Michael in cinema history

Coming in 2019 the feature film Mikha'El in English, Greek, Hebrew, Latin and Italian, shot on location in seven countries

VALLETTA, MALTA, January 2, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Avinu Films are pleased to announce that production is on schedule for the feature film Mikha'El, the first historically accurate docudrama on the Archangel Michael in English, Greek, Hebrew, Latin, and Italian in the history of cinema. Written and led by the award-winning Maltese-American director Marcelle Abela and the Maltese producer Mariella Delia, the film has an international cast and crew, whose details will be released after production has been wrapped up. Mikha'El is presently being shot on location in seven different countries across two continents. It is expected to be available to the general public later this year. The graphics and artwork of Mikha'El are in the hands of Antonia Harris, the Maltese-American creative director of Z-Group Studio of Montana. Promotional consideration for the film has been provided by JMD Health & Safety Services of Zabbar, Malta, and Red Giant, the post-production software company of Portland, Oregon.
