

Top Small Business Help Forums Named by deBanked

deBanked has selected its two favorite small business forums of 2018

BROOKLYN, NY, UNITED STATES, January 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- deBanked has selected its two favorite small business forums of 2018.

The Small Business Forum (<http://www.small-business-forum.net>) was the leading destination for storefront businesses.

The Business Advice Forum (<http://www.businessadviceforum.com/>) was the leading destination for online businesses.

Each small business forum provides free access to a helpful community.

According to the Small Business Administration, there are 30.2 million small businesses in the US. These businesses employ 58.9 million people. Active online forums like the ones we have selected provide the opportunity to connect with likeminded business owners. All that is required for registration is an email address, but anyone can browse the questions previously asked and answered. Marketing, management, franchising, accounting, financing, legal, HR, and website design are among the topics that users can discuss. Financial help includes everything from small business credit cards to lines of credit to merchant cash advances to small business loans. Business management and marketing help rank among the most sought after information

The Small Business Forum was founded in 2008, has more than 27,000 members, and nearly 110,000 posts. The Business Advice Forum was founded in 2004, has more than 27,000 members, and more than 220,000 posts.
