This is about US!

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, USA, January 1, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Political Relief Organization, LLC (TPR) is a newly established News and Information Network, providing raw data and analysis to both the domestic and global population, as it relates to improving quality of life by better managing our government(s).

In an era of, "divide and conquer", TPR's team of highly qualified Researchers and Investigators have spent decades deciphering general government practices, the system of government, special agenda and big corporation and found startling connections, outcomes and comparisons. The company is led by Marlon Campbell. Campbell holds an Undergrad in Intelligence from AMU/APUS, has served as Goodwill Ambassador for Emory University's Global Health & Humanitarian Summit, African Improvement Network (AIN) and Millennial Hope. He's also a member of the International Diplomacy Club.

TPR's aim is to adjust the trajectory of our economic and social systems, in a way that better serves the 99 percent. It's a bold goal! The organization prides itself on having no political affiliations, government, special interest or corporate agenda. As Campbell stated during a recent interview regarding spearheading TPR, he said this; "throughout my diverse career in entertainment and government, I have traveled the world and learn things that are certainly to the detriment of the 99 percent. We have to take action now if we are to ever regain control of our systems of government...this is about us".
