

Theodora Uniken Venema of Downtown Brokers to be Featured on CUTV News Radio

ORLANDO, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, January 3, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Young, wealthy individuals look outside of the country to grow their wealth, but investing so far from your home base takes a special person with a special understanding. If you are a foreign investor working in foreign currency in a foreign country and want to take advantage of the best you can have in this country, you need an expert like Theodora Uniken Venema of Downtown Brokers.

Theodora is a Licensed Real Estate Broker and the founder of Downtown Brokers, a full-service, boutique real estate brokerage successfully investing in Florida Real Estate for over 30 years.

Downtown Brokers serves as a comprehensive source for foreign investors looking for long-term commercial investment in the Florida dream.

"Foreign investors have a great need for coaching. In this country, everything is different from what they are used to: different income strategy, different tax structure, different culture, different expectations and different aspirations," says Theodora.

Born in the Netherlands and educated in law at the Groningen University Rechten Faculteit with specializations in real estate, and tax law, Theodora came to America for her post-doctoral studies at the Fredric G. Levin College of Law at the University of Florida. Theodora speaks three languages: Dutch, German and English.

"I wanted more in life, something more global, and to start my own business," says Theodora. "I left for America August 19, 1981 with that goal in mind: what can I do with my law degrees on a global scale?"

Theodora's clients are investors. They buy and hold it. They know sometimes the value is up and sometimes it's down, but their money is safe in America.

"The most successful business people and corporations invest in America, but they know what they don't know, and they need a professional. There is a cultural difference. There is a currency difference. Different real estate law, lien requirements, income requirements, rental requirements, and different cost structures.” says Theodora. “We represent a worldwide clientele. We understand the American business procedures are different from what you are used to. We are here for you.”

CUTV News Radio will feature Theodora Uniken Venema in an interview with Doug Llewelyn on January 7th at 1pm and with Jim Masters on January 14th at 1pm EST.
