

Jump-start your New Year with Chicago Bride

Learn about the best four things to do right after your engagement to kick start the planning!

CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, USA, January 3, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chicago Bride magazine, a premiere wedding resource for Chicagoland brides, is excited to announce the release of its latest issue, both in print and digital editions.

This issue contains a detailed wedding planning checklist that breaks down the wedding preparation into an easy-to-follow timeline, as well as recommended reception sites to host your special day, ranging from ballrooms to mansions to traditional hotels. This issue also has information that can be forgotten during the process from beauty to budgeting.

In this issue brides can escape the trouble of buying expensive store products and find at home facial masks and an easy-to-follow detox from the comfort of home! This issue also showcases a gorgeous Chicago-land fashion designer, Elena Victoria.

Find out the top items you shouldn't forget to register for, and which wedding expenses are worth the extra splurge. Brides will also unfold questions to ask the bridal salon on finding the perfect and unique gown.

"Chicago Bride strives to make the wedding planning process go as smoothly as possible for our brides. We know how stressful it can be, so we are dedicated to eliminate that by providing all the information they need in one place," says Kari Polydoris, Chicago Bride Editor. "Our magazine strives to encompass all aspects of the wedding preparation so that brides will enjoy the journey up to their wedding day."

For all the adventurous and beer-loving brides out there! Find where you can host your perfect wedding, and discover a magical place for your honeymoon.

Of course, this issue continues the ever-popular "Real Weddings" section, featuring four beautiful brides and their fabulous weddings.
