

GLOBAL LUXURY VILLA RENTAL COMPANY EXPERIENCES UNPRECEDENTED DEMAND FOR THE CARIBBEAN THIS WINTER

Caribbean is extremely popular this winter season

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, UNITED STATES, January 4, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Leading luxury vacation rental company has announced that demand for the Caribbean is the strongest in their history since its inception in 1992. This unprecedented increase in demand for the islands is due to a combination of different factors and climatic conditions.

First and foremost, the Caribbean had virtually no hurricane activity this year. The 2018 hurricane movement in the region was one of the quietest in history. The hurricane season officially ended on November 30th, 2018 so there is no threat to the 2019 season. Secondly, the world health organization (WHO) announced on the 18th October this year that it has removed the Zika Travel Alert for most of the Caribbean territories.

we are delighted that the Caribbean sees such a surge in popularity and demand”

Turks and Caicos is another island which is seeing tremendous demand. The last year has seen an unprecedented amount of new extremely luxurious villas and resorts being built on the island especially on the island of Providenciales. The increase in luxury accommodation together with the fact that Grace Bay continues to be voted the number one beach in the world by many reputable sources has greatly enhanced the island's popularity.
