BOSTON AND BEYOND, MASSACHUSETTS, USA, January 4, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Boston's only Animal Chaplain and Pet Grief Counselor (and one of the very few in the world), Kaleel Sakakeeny, provides an amazing kind of service most people don't know exists. Kaleel is there for pet owners who are struggling with the loss of their animal companions. And this loss, as anyone who has lost an animal companion to death knows,is horrific. The pain is total. The hurt lasts and lasts and feels like it will never go away. And there are very few people to talk to about the pain.

As a Pet Grief Counselor and Animal Chaplain, Kaleel offers personal grief and loss counseling for those suffering from the end of their precious relationship with their pet. Perhaps you or a family member knows this feeling? Perhaps because you or that someone close to you has suffered the loss of a beloved animal? And it doesn't matter when, the pain is still there.

Pet Ministry Boston and Pet Grief Help are helpful resources that give more information and assistance.

But Kaleel offers personal support face-to-face, by phone or Skype or email to many on their grief journey. Please also look at our Facebook Page (Pet Grief help & Counseling) for caring, timely and popular content and images on healing from loss and the pain of losing a beloved pet..as well as issues of Animal Rights.

Kaleel also leads a monthly discussion group, Animal Talks, at the Stratford Street Church in Boston, Massachusetts.

These parlor meditations and discussions are engaging explorations of the many aspects of our lives with our animals from Euthanasia Myths to Animal Communication to plain, old litter box problems.

He is an exceptional presenter and has enjoyed giving talks at churches, civic groups, libraries, schools and universities and is happy to talk about presenting a discussion about Our Animals and Ourselves either in person or via online platforms.

Please let us know if you are interested in talking with Kaleel and learning more about this unique work in the animal community. He'd be very happy to answer any questions. He's a fun and engaging interviewee, and I hope media want to talk with him about the work that's being done in the field.

Thank you for your consideration. Please let Kaleel know if you have any questions. He can be reached at Kaleel@theothermecoaching.com Blessings Always
