

ACADEMIC PHYSICIAN LIFE CARE PLANNING, LLC USING DAY IN THE LIFE VIDEOS IN CATASTROPHIC INJURY CASES

Day in the Life video provides credible and compelling insights into a plaintiff's physical/psychological disabilities and daily care needs.

SANTA BARBARA, CA, UNITED STATES, January 4, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Academic Physician Life Care Planning, LLC (APLCP, LLC) utilizes Day in the Life videos as a powerful and critical communication tool in catastrophic injury cases.

Produced under the rules of evidence, a Day in the Life video provides credible and compelling insights into a plaintiff's physical/psychological disabilities and daily care needs. Our time-honored visual storytelling techniques are proven to effectively present the arduous yet dignified daily struggles the individual endures as they courageously face the current obstacles life brings.

At APLCP, LLC, our firm is built to provide complete Life Care Planning. Each plan is comprehensively constructed with foundations provided by medical experts in their field of specialization - Burn Surgeons, Orthopedic Trauma Surgeons, Pediatric Physiatry, Orthopedic Spine Surgeons, and Board-Certified Physicians in Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation.

Baxter Gentry, our Day in the Life producer, is a seasoned legal media professional with decades of experience coming from an extensive background in TV News and documentary film production.

Mr. Gentry adds, "Our other media services include: trial support, video settlement brochures and The Living Exhibit, which is a custom and interactive PDF timeline that provides a crucial overview of key records in the case."

Dr. Greg Vigna is the physician leader of Academic Physician Life Care Planning who is a catastrophic injury attorney, a practicing physician, and a Certified Life Care Planner. Dr. Vigna understands the value of demonstrative evidence such as Day in the Life videos that are used in mediation and/or trial.

Dr. Vigna emphasizes, "We combine physician experts in Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, who have independently examined the injured person with the opinions of physician experts in the related trauma fields who have also reviewed the medical history. By adding a Day in the Life video, the case presented in the life care plan is further bolstered."

APLCP, LLC Catastrophic Life Care Plans are available with or without a Day in the Life video. The multiple specialists may be included in the foundation of the opinions as to the various aspects
