

Leonid & Friends, a spectacular Chicago tribute band from Moscow, takes New York's Sony Hall stage January 8

LEONID & FRIENDS are simply one of the greatest performing tribute groups to play the music of the super-group CHICAGO.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, January 4, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Who would imagine that the best tribute band playing the music of legendary jazz-rock band Chicago would come from Moscow? Fans of this iconic supergroup will be convinced—and enthralled—when they see and hear Leonid & Friends perform at New York City's Sony Hall, 235 W. 46th St., New York on Tuesday, January 8 at 8 p.m. Tickets are priced at $50 (standing room only) and $75 (seated).

This band of super-talented musicians and vocalists have become a worldwide phenomenon because they present a spectacular re-creation of Chicago's most beloved songs, performed with energy and passion. The numbers can't be wrong: Leonid & Friends' online videos have been viewed more than 15 million times and they have more than a million social media followers—and their worldwide legend keeps on growing.

Their Sony Hall concert on January 8 represents the beginning of their first American tour, which will also take them to Chicago and Los Angeles for several shows in each city. Their reputation precedes them, so their shows tend to sell out wherever they perform.
