

Soul Scents by Leasa Helps Put Nature Back into Skin Care

Nature-based products help those with eczema and serve as an alternative for people challenged by steroids and other harsh ingredients

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, January 5, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- California's, Soul Scents by Leasa will continue to expand its nature-based, line of lotions, moisturizers, soaps and scrubs specifically designed to treat itchy and painful eczema, and other skin problems, its publicist announced today.

Eczema is a skin condition that affects approximately 31% of Americans. At the time of this writing, the National Eczema Association reports there is no cure, but breakouts can be controlled. Individuals with eczema typically experience patches of dry, itchy skin that often cracks, bleeds, or becomes infected.

The Soul Scents by Leasa product line features nature-based and plant-based ingredients. Customers say they found options offered by the company to be effective skin treatments without the harsh side effects they typically experience with their prescribed medication for eczema.

Leasa Hart of Pittsburg, California is the founder of Soul Scents by Leasa. Her creative concoctions for the skin include balms and smooth and creamy, body butters made with shea butter; cocoa butter, lime; coconut; mango butter; lemon, and natural oils.

Hart says that this time of the year, individuals with eczema and other skin problems are particularly challenged.

"Black seed oil is amazing and is one of the powerful ingredients in the Soul Scents Eczema Healing Cream," explained Leasa Hart. "In the winter, dry skin is prone to being damaged quicker because of the cold and wind. You'll be hard-pressed to find any oil more nourishing than black cummin seed. It contains over 100 vitamins and minerals to treat eczema."

Hart added that studies have proven that vitamins and minerals help the skin retain moisture, maintain elasticity, and fight damaging, free radicals.

Soul Scents by Leasa continues to further redefine the industry. Their nature-based, brand helps to fulfill the demand for soothing and effective alternatives for eczema. Also offered are compounds for beards, razor bumps, and bath and beauty.
