

The 3rd Annual Unmanned Maritime Systems Technology conference is now open for registration

SMi reports: Unmanned Maritime Systems Technology returns to London for its 3rd successful year, on 8th and 9th May 2019

LONDON, LONDON BRIDGE, UNITED KINGDOM, January 9, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As technology and innovation continue to push the boundaries of operational capabilities in Naval warfare, Unmanned Maritime Systems Technology 2019 will be a crucial forum for the discussion of current and future projects and programmes delivering unmanned and autonomous technology for modern Navies.

The 2019 event will provide holistic coverage of unmanned systems across the full maritime domain, including undersea, surface, and aerial environments. The conference taking place on the 8th and 9th May 2019 in London will bring together key planners and decision makers from across the NATO-aligned world who will have discussions on the following key topics:

- Anti-submarine warfare
- Aerial unmanned maritime systems
- Autonomy in mine countermeasure operations
- Developing joint interoperability across unmanned systems
- Updates on key unmanned platform programmes
- The future of unmanned capabilities
