About Local Grown Salads Patent Pending Indoor Vertical Farming technology:

- Grows fresh produce year-round in a controlled environment with the highest standards of food quality and food safety
- Creates product that is organic, pesticide free, herbicide free, and GMO free
- Decreases transportation costs, thereby reducing the carbon footprint
- Helps to address the problem of food deserts
- Allows indoor farming that helps save the planet's arable land

About Local Grown Salads and Opportunity Zones:

Opportunity Zones are a tax incentive established by Congress in the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017. 8,700 Opportunity Zones have been designated. The Opportunity Zones are low-income and food deserts. Local Grown Salads is expecting to create 20 jobs in its farms and provide fresh healthy food at wholesale prices to the community.

The Local Grown Salads farms can re-purpose older (heritage) buildings which are not challenged for other uses.
