

Freedom Cash Offer Buys Houses in Phoenix Fast For Cash

Using a simple and quick process, Freedom Cash Offer buys houses in the Phoenix area and pays in cash for them. We buy houses Phoenix is one of their slogans.

PHOENIX, AZ, USA, January 10, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Freedom Cash Offer in Phoenix is buying houses in a very fast and easy way. It doesn't matter where the house is in Phoenix, the condition in which the house is, or the reasons behind which the seller is trying to get rid of the house; the transaction is all-cash and extremely fast. The avoidance of doing the process through agents or banks makes the whole transaction very smooth and rapid. Freedom Cash Offer aims to hear out the wishes of the sellers and to respect them in the selling process in which both sides will have their best interests protected.

Stephanie Polydoroff always acts accordingly to the preferences of her sellers, and as a result, she has some very satisfied customers. "Stephanie was overly professional and extremely competent in the real estate market. She assisted me with the purchase of a property in Florida while she was out of State. Although she was in Arizona the process was very smooth. She was overly accessible and made the process stress free. I whole heartedly and without reservation recommend her" stated one of the sellers.

The goal of Freedom Cash Offer is to pay cash to sellers that want to sell their properties in a short period without complications such as documentation or other agents' involvement. This way, the seller can walk away with the money from the property in a matter of days. So, if somebody is asking "I want to sell my house fast Phoenix," Stephanie is the person that they need to contact.

The process of selling a house is very easy; all the interested people have to do is go to the website of Freedom Cash Offer and send some basic details about the house that is up for sale. If the house fits the criteria, an appointment will be made, and the house can be sold as soon as seven days after filling the form on the website. If the seller doesn't like the offer, they have no obligation to accept it.

Additionally, the stress related to cleaning up the property or fixing some things can be all gone since the company buys houses in as-is condition. The reasons behind the wishes of the seller to get rid of the property are not important. Whether the seller is getting divorced, they inherited the place; they need to move out fast, they are facing foreclosure, or they just have an unwanted property that is not being used, it doesn't matter. The professionalism of Stephanie Polydoroff and her honesty will make the transition as smooth as possible.

Other places in which Freedom Cash Offers operates are Scottsdale, Tempe, Mesa, Arcadia, Buckeye, Tonopah, Chandler, Gilbert, Maryvale, Apache Junction, Surprise, Sun City, Wittmann, Casa Grande, Litchfield Park, Glendale, Peoria, Bullhead City, Black Canyon City, Page, Avondale, Goodyear, and all over Arizona.

"We operate differently from other real estate transactions. When you fill out a contact form or call us, we are going to give you a call to ask you a few questions about the property. We will come out to see it, run the numbers and give you a fair cash offer. There's no obligation if that number fits in the price point you were hoping to sell for, then great! But if not, we will do our best to help point you in the right direction to get your house sold!" says Stephanie.
