2019 Smart City Summit & Expo (SCSE), Asia's largest annual smart city tradeshow, will be held in Taipei, Taiwan, March 26 to 29.

TAIPEI, TAIWAN, January 11, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ --

2019 Smart City Summit & Expo (SCSE), Asia's largest annual smart city tradeshow, will be held in Taipei, Taiwan, March 26 to 29. Jointly organized by Taipei City Government, Taiwan Smart City Solutions Alliance, and Taipei Computer Association, SCSE has invited professionals from all around the world to share their experiences in smart city development, and to showcase innovative solutions since 2014.

In 2018, SCSE has attracted 120 city leaders and representatives from 50 countries, 210 exhibitors, and over 30,000 visitors. Furthermore, SCSE organizes 3 professional sub-expos, Smart Healthcare Expo (SHE Taipei), FuturED Expo, and Intelligent Building Expo (IBE Taipei), in 2018, which involve experts and professionals with different specialties. There were 65 forums focusing on sustainability, mobility, healthcare, and building, addressing all issues and trends in smart cities. 2019 Smart City Summit & Expo will include following features:

1. IoT Invigorates Smart City

In past 5 years, the theme of SCSE has been "Building Smart Cities on the IoT", which focused on the importance of IoT (Internet of Things) and smart city applications worldwide. In 2019 edition, SCSE foresees the value in A.I. (Artificial Intelligence) applications in smart cities, introducing a diversity of up-to-date technologies and the insights into the future.

2. Larger Scale of Smart Healthcare Expo

Seeing the great potential of smart healthcare industry, Smart Healthcare Expo (SHE), jointly organized by Joint Commission of Taiwan, Taiwan Smart City Solutions Alliance, and Taipei Computer Association, had its first edition in 2018. Aiming at becoming the leading smart healthcare event, SHE not only invites the hospital superintendents from Taiwan and abroad, but holds professional forums to promote the communication of healthcare experts from different countries. 3. Expansion of Comprehensive Sub-expos

As smart city applications cover various fields, SCSE extends its themes through sub-expos in 2019, which include smart education, smart building, and smart mobility. With the collaboration with Taiwan Intelligent Building Association, Innovation Learning Center from Institute for Information Industry, Department of Education from Taipei City Government, Industrial Development Bureau from Ministry of Economic Affairs, Industrial Technology Research Institute, and Intelligent Transport Society of Taiwan, SCSE expects to gather the experts from industry, government, and knowledge institutions to illustrate the flourishing development of smart city.

With the rapid development of smart city worldwide, SCSE is definitely the business hub for you to find the best partner!
