

Schwartz Law Announces New Partners, Name Change

NEW YORK, NEW YORK, USA, January 14, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- NEW YORK, NY – Schwartz Law is proud to announce that the firm has changed its name to Schwartz, Conroy & Hack, acknowledging the significant, ongoing contributions of two firm partners, Matthew Conroy and Michail Hack.

SCHWARTZ, CONROY & HACK, PC
Making Insurance Companies Keep Their Promises

Over the past 25 years, the attorneys at Schwartz Law have gained national prominence in obtaining recoveries for their policy holder clients against insurance companies. The firm and its attorneys have secured countless settlements, and have won cases and favorable court decisions that benefit insurance policy holders nationwide.

Evan Schwartz is the firm's founder and will continue as CEO and managing partner. He is a highly skilled litigator in the niche area of insurance recovery claims and litigation, as well as in complex federal and state litigation. Mr. Schwartz continues to manage claims and lawsuits against insurance companies in federal and state courts across the country.

Principal trial attorney Matt Conroy is a seasoned trial lawyer, and has successfully tried more than 40 cases, which includes more than 30 jury verdicts. He has helped numerous clients prosecute and defend complex business, health care, insurance recovery and real property matters.

Michail Hack has been with the firm for nearly 20 years. He is a seasoned insurance recovery lawyer, litigator, ERISA practitioner and director of the disability and long term care claims management services group. He is widely respected and nationally known in the field of Disability Income and Long Term Disability Insurance.

"I am extraordinarily pleased to have Matt and Michail working with me as the firm continues to grow," said Evan Schwartz. "Our mission is to protect and enforce the rights of business and individual insurance policy holders against their insurance companies, and we intend to make insurance companies keep their promises for many years to come."

"It's been an honor to play an integral part in growing this firm," said Mr. Conroy. "I look forward to continuing the rewarding work we do by protecting and enforcing the rights of insureds against their insurance companies. It's been a true privilege to work alongside Evan and Michail, and I hope to do so for the remainder of my career."

"Nothing has made me more proud in my professional life than partnering with Evan and Matt and continuing the great work that we have done together for so many years," said Mr. Hack. "I look forward to working collaboratively with our entire team to serve the needs of our clients and to protect them."

Schwartz, Conroy & Hack is a nationally recognized law firm that represents insurance policy holders in claims and litigation against their insurance companies. For more information, please visit <https://schlawpc.com> or contact us at (800) 745-1755.
