We specialize in a hands-on learning experience that grants students the opportunity to interact with and participate in the world around them”

Robert Lysek, Founder & CEO

“We specialize in a hands-on learning experience that grants students the opportunity to interact with and participate in the world around them,” says Robert Lysek, founder and CEO of EEACS.

One of those unique hands-on experiences for middle schoolers is eighth-grade field experience. Students spend time with career mentors, visit businesses, and complete independent projects.

Parents, guardians, and middle school students can schedule a tour of EEACS to begin the application process. To learn more, visit <https://www.ee-schools.org/tour/>.

About EEACS: Founded in 2014 by highly experienced educators and management, Executive Education Academy Charter School, authorized for grades K-12 by the Allentown School District, leads the way in education by offering its 1,300 students opportunities for growth both in and out of the classroom. EEACS combines all mandated studies with a unique student-corporate culture. To learn more, visit <https://www.ee-schools.org/>.
