specializes in early childhood educational curriculum and training for educators, Lauryn J. Hunter, an award winning Art Therapist and Mental Health Specialist at Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Celebrity Journalist, Sharon Doyle who is also Mrs. Diversity 2017 and Arts 4 Peace Queen 2018, Actress Kathleen Bradley-Redd best known as the first African American female on "The Price is Right" as well as other film and television credits which include the 1995 movie, "Friday", and internationally re-known Songwriter/Pianist, Mirjana Anastasijevic, who has been recognized worldwide for her film score "The Ghost of Tocanda", that won The Royal Wolf Film Awards, and has 63 international nominations for the best original score.

"Our mission at MIMPA will be to continue to provide a platform for recognition of those Studios, Producers, Writers, Directors and Artists, who make diversity and inclusion a part of their respective creative projects, while also raising funds to support up and coming film-makers and students with grants and scholarships for film and television projects that impact diversity within the entertainment industry", stated Gibson. "We will partner and dialog with studio executives to assist them with messaging that reflects the landscape of our ever-changing industry, and hopefully create an environment where women and people of color are considered in the same manner as others, making roles more accessible and inclusion a consideration while characters are being created and developed, ultimately getting to the root cause of exclusion", Gibson said. MIMPA's Lady in Red Diamond Rose Awards recognizes and empowers women who are making a difference in the world in their various careers, including, but not limited to the entertainment industry, and raises funds to benefit non-profit organizations that seek to support the specific needs of women and children. This year's benefactor, Shelter Partnership, Inc. 501(3)c organization that advocates for the homeless, will receive a portion of proceeds raised from the gala with thanks to the event's sponsors, Sanfilippo Foundation, Acceptance Recovery Center, MyLoveablelegs, Theoria Technical College, Estee Brands, and Fund Duel.
