

ItaliaSec 2019 Call for Speakers: IT Security Experts

Share your knowledge and actionable insights with the Italian cyber security community

ROME, ITALY, January 15, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The 3rd ItaliaSec Summit returns to Rome on the 14th-15th of May 2019. This is the annual platform for senior experts from the Government and Banking, Finance, Oil & Gas, Utilities, Retail, Chemicals, Pharmaceuticals, Manufacturing, Food, Healthcare, and Transport industries to discuss the main cyber security challenges currently threatening Italian businesses and critical assets - and evaluate the best and most cost-effective strategies to properly face them.

A range of urgent topics will be approached –such as the panorama of EU and national politics and the integration of governance and compliance, how to communicate cyber security with the board for support, and the new challenges posed by supply chain risks and Industry 4.0. The agenda, crafted in partnership with a Steering Committee of experts, boasts keynote presentations, real-life case studies, panel debates, and group discussions.

Who can apply for a speaking slot?

This conference is curated for experienced C-level cyber security leaders from the private and public sectors - those able to offer innovative ideas, new perspectives, and/or concrete solutions to the Italian state of cyber security are welcome to apply.
