

BAE Systems sign up for Air Mission Planning and Support Conference as Gold Sponsors

SMi Reports: Industry leader BAE Systems announced as Gold Sponsors of SMi's 10th annual Air Mission Planning and Support Conference, alongside Leonardo.

LONDON, LONDON, UNITED KINGDOM, January 16, 2019

/EINPresswire.com/ -- SMi are delighted to welcome aboard their latest Gold Sponsor for this year's 10th Annual Air Mission Planning and Support Conference as BAE Systems, taking place in London, UK on the 9th and 10th April.

BAE Systems, who are returning sponsors from last year's successful event and are joining Leonardo in the Gold Sponsor line-up, help their customers stay a step ahead when protecting people and national security, critical infrastructure and vital information.

BAE Systems also created Sceptre, an Advanced Mission Planning System with a combined Mission Planning & Debriefing system, acting as a vital aid to improved command and control, influence and success in the battlefield.

This year's two-day conference is set to explore emerging aircraft technologies, strategies and future platforms to take Air Mission Planning into the next generation, providing agile end-to-end mission support.

Delegates will hear from an international expert speaker line-up as the two-day meeting will host key decision-makers from the UK, USA, Canada, Air Force Materiel Command, NATO, France, MCCE, Greece, and more. Attendees will receive comprehensive coverage of mission planning in C2 systems, and in fixed and rotary wing, as well as 5th generation fighters, data management, and cyber security.

Air Mission Planning and Support 2019

Featured 2019 Conference Expert Speakers:

- Group Captain Richard Yates, COS Air Battle Staff, Royal Air Force
- Captain Craig Dorrans, Enterprise Planning Director, Joint Strike Fighter Program Office, US Navy
- Colonel Mark G. Roberts, 22 Wing Commander, Canadian Forces Base North Bay, Royal Canadian Air Force
- Colonel (ret'd) George Riebling, Deputy General Manager, NATO Airborne Early Warning and Control Programme Management Agency (NAPMA)
- Colonel Etienne Faury, Chief of Planning Office, French Air Force
- And many more

As the military's dependence on air power increases, commanders and procurers of air assets must continue to seek means of enhancing the combat effectiveness of their platforms via effective mission planning and real time support.
