

AWE Learning to provide cyber safety education at libraries

Nonprofit Center for Cyber Safety and Education announces its partnership with AWE Learning to start cyber safety education at libraries.

ST PETERSBURG, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, January 22, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The nonprofit Center for Cyber Safety and Education (Center) is excited to announce its partnership with AWE Acquisition, Inc. dba AWE Learning. AWE Learning is the leading provider of digital learning solutions for public libraries throughout the United States and Canada.

AWE Learning's newest products, Early Literacy Station™ Platinum and AfterSchool Edge™ Platinum, each include more than 70 new software titles, spanning all STREAM subject areas (Science, Technology, Reading, Engineering, Arts, Math) for early learners. The new products will feature the award-winning cyber safety lessons with Garfield that were created by the Center and legendary cartoonist Jim Davis, Paws, Inc.

"We are excited to have six of our Garfield's Cyber Safety Adventures products on the new AWE Learning's Platinum platform including three interactive Garfield cartoons and three Garfield e-Comic books for the children to read. Lessons include Privacy, Safe Posting, and Cyberbullying." said Patrick Craven, Director of the Center for Cyber Safety and Education. "It is important that we teach as many children as possible how to be safe and secure when online and AWE Learning gives us another great tool to do just that."

AWE Learning President & CEO, Dr. Deborah B. Sorgi, said, "We are delighted to partner with the Center for Cyber Safety and Education. Organizations like the Center offer a variety of premier educational content for our target age group and markets. Learning doesn't only take place in the classroom. In today's global and connected world, critical skills are learned and mastered all day long. By addressing the foundational literacy skills of early learners, we're lowering the need for intervention programs. And we're giving every child access to unlimited opportunities to grow and connect. We have no doubt that young patrons everywhere will greatly enjoy interacting on these exciting new titles."
