SHATIN , NT, NEW TERRITORIES, 香港, January 22, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- 香港-19Dec 2018 Heilind Electronics, the leading global distributor of interconnect and electromechanical components, is awarded 2018 Excellent Passive Component Authorized Distributor by China Electronics Distribution Association (CEDA) during annual summit of CEDA in Shenzhen, China.

China Electronics Distribution Association (CEDA) is a non-profit organization chartered to serve franchised electronics component distributors with operations in greater China. At present, CEDA is under the leadership of China's Information Commerce to serve China's innovation activities by one stop reliable supply chain solutions.

The selection result came from electronic industry experts' selection and public vote. This award evaluates supply chain management and value-added services of authorized distributors, especially their abilities in providing passive component products with short lead time to support the fast development of China market.

"I'm glad to accept this Award on behalf of Heilind. Heilind provides a high quality, flexible and responsive resource that can shorten lead times, consolidate SKUs, reduce manufacturing & handling costs, and improve inventory performance & response to manufacturing, which delivers multiple customer benefits." said Ken Liu, the Branch Manager of Heilind Asia Pacific.

Besides that, Heilind Electronics operates fully-equipped value added centers in New Hampshire, USA and Hong Kong offering a complete menu of value added services such as part assembly, part modification, and packaging services.

Heilind supports both original equipment and contract manufacturers in all market segments of the electronics industry, stocking products from the industry's leading manufacturers in 25 component categories, with a particular focus on interconnect, electromechanical, fastener/hardware and sensor products.
