

Laffey Real Estate Promotes Linda Michael to Branch Manager

Newest Appointee to the Management Team

GREENVALE, NY, USA, January 31, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Laffey Real Estate, Long Island's premier family owned residential real estate brokerage, is pleased to announce the promotion of Linda Soldano Ragione Michael to the role of Branch Manager of the New Hyde Park office. The announcement was made jointly by principals, Mark T. Laffey and Philip C. Laffey, the Broker-Owners of the old firm. "Linda has real estate in her DNA. As a second generation realtor, Linda's in-depth perspective of the real estate market is a priceless attribute to the firm," explained Philip C. Laffey/ Principal, Broker Owner.

Her progress has been well documented: awarded Laffey's 2017 Shining Start Honor, named 2018 Career Leader, responsible for mentorship, innovative thinking and strategic planning and, most recently recipient of the 2018 Overall Top Producer Port Washington Office Award.

Linda has real estate in her DNA. As a second generation realtor, Linda's in-depth perspective of the real estate market is a priceless attribute to the firm.”

Philip C. Laffey

Linda quickly assumed the Branch Manager role of nurturer, teacher and mentor with the same electricity and vigor she has used throughout her entire real estate career. Her common sense, direct approach is invaluable to the development of strong realtors, a responsibility she has excelled at from the very start.

In this new chapter, she is managing a robust office of realtors, navigating the complex market and applying her skills to foster a growth-oriented sales culture. Using her notoriously high energy business style, Linda's impact is already beginning to see results. A Realtor's Realtor, she is actively marketing and selling real estate closing out another banner year matching her 2018 success while recruiting, mentoring and challenging her team of professionals.

A Board member of the Port Washington Senior Center and a fifth generation Port Washingtonian, Linda still resides in Port Washington with her extended family.
