

Coursedog partners with N2N Services to provide real-time integration to customers.

Partnership will simplify integration strategies and allow Coursedog to expand the number of supported platforms.

DULUTH, GEORGIA, USA, February 7, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- N2N Services, Inc., a leading platform provider for Higher Education systems integration, today announced a strategic partnership with Coursedog, Inc. With this partnership, Coursedog will integrate its Course Scheduling applications with N2N's turnkey cloud integration platform, Illuminate, to provide real-time integration options to customers.

We are excited to accelerate our rapid growth by providing our customers with quick implementation timelines and real-time systems integrations."

CEO of Coursedog Justin Wenig

N2N's Illuminate enables partners to deliver integration solutions quickly and easily. Through N2N's platform, higher education customers will be able to connect their ERP systems including Ellucian™, Peoplesoft® and Jenzabar® to Coursedog's scheduling applications for real-time integration or for scheduled data syncing. More information can be found at Coursedog's website: www.coursedog.com.

"N2N is pleased to partner with Coursedog to enable real-time data integration. We're confident that Coursedog applications, powered by N2N's integration platform, will provide real-time and interactive solutions needed to enhance institutional efficiencies and support comprehensive student success," explained Kiran Kodithala CEO and founder of N2N Services Inc. "N2N is committed to collaborations, such as with Coursedog, that have a direct impact on student services and institutional effectiveness."
