

Clearwater Community Volunteers Center Gives Nonprofits tools for Social Media

CLEARWATER, FLORIDA, US, February 7, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Clearwater Community Volunteers (CCV) Center is launching a month of educational seminars on how to use social media for fundraising and communicating a group's message. Barry Coziahr, experienced marketing professional of 30 years, is delivering the seminars – specifically for Tampa Bay nonprofit organizations. Starting on February 9, the seminars are every Saturday at 4pm at the CCV Center in Downtown Clearwater. There is no cost to attend.

The Clearwater Community Volunteers Center is hosting a series of social media seminars for local nonprofit organizations. The first of the series is on February 9th at 4pm.

Mr. Coziahr is a Social Media Consultant specializing in Facebook Marketing. In his time as a marketing specialist he has trained and consulted hundreds of small businesses and nonprofits to help them promote themselves so that they can grow.

Mr. Coziahr said, "I deliver these talks to nonprofits because I believe that nonprofits working together on social betterment projects can make a better world."

The next seminar will be held on February 9th at 4PM on how to compose a GoFundMe page to attract potential donators. GoFundMe.com is a website charities commonly use to raise funds.

The CCV Center organizes these seminars to help nonprofits grow and have a bigger impact in
