

Hiersche Hayward Drakeley Urbach Grows Its Corporate Practice with Addition of Associate Attorney Macy Matthews

Macy Matthews clerked with HHDU in law school and is the newest member of the firm's Corporate Law Section. She is an honors graduate of Baylor Law School.

ADDISON, TEXAS, U.S., February 8, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- North Texas-based commercial law firm Hiersche, Hayward, Drakeley and Urbach, P.C. has expanded its Corporate Law Section with the hiring of Macy L. Matthews. Matthews was previously a law clerk with the firm and will now join the firm full-time as an Associate Attorney.

Bill Hayward, Shareholder and Co-Founder of the firm, praised Matthews, stating, "At HHDU, we always look to hire people who are not only sharp lawyers, but who also prioritize client service, ethical practices and dedication. Macy proved that she has all of this in spades during the time she spent with us as a law clerk. We are very happy to welcome her to the firm as a full-time member of the team and look forward to watching her undoubtedly bright future unfold."

Macy graduated from Baylor Law School with honors, and also earned recognition for her legal acumen and commitment, winning the Haley & Olson, P.C. Corporate Law Award and Larry T. Bates Excellence in Appellate Advocacy Award. She was a Semi-Finalist in the Strasburger & Price Moot Court Competition in Spring 2016 and served as a Barrister in the Harvey M. Richey Moot Court Society. She also coached the Transactional Law Meet Team and was a member of the Baylor Public Interest Society and Texas Aggie Bar Association. Macy earned a Bachelor of Business Administration in Management from Texas A&M University in 2014, where she was a member of the TAMU Pre-Law Society.
