

NCRIUS Panel on Prospects for Change; Impact of Sanction in Iran as Nationwide Uprising Continues

Providing perspective on current situation in Iran & policy options for 2019.

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, February 8, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- WASHINGTON, DC, February 6, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The U.S. Representative Office of the National Council of Resistance of Iran \(NCRI-US\) invites you to attend a panel on the regime's long and brutal domestic and foreign policy record at home and abroad. Soona Samsami, the NCRI representative in the United States will provide perspective on the current situation in Iran, the impact of a firm policy and imposition of sanctions a year after the nationwide uprising began in the country, the prospects for change in Iran, and policy options for 2019.

On February 11, 1979, the Iranian people overthrew the Shah's Monarchic dictatorship. Hard-line clerics, led by Ruhollah Khomeini, stole the revolution from the Iranian people and imposed a religious dictatorship.

The clerical leadership became entangled in several conflicts in the years that followed, which caused the death of millions of Iranians and non-Iranians alike across the Middle East and beyond.

Soona Samsami, NCRI Representative in the U.S.

“

It is time for the international community to respect the Iranian people's goal of liberating Iran and the entire world from the evil of the mullahs' religious fascism.”

Soona Samsami, NCRI Representative in U.S.

WHEN: Monday, February 11, 2019; 10:00-11:00 AM
