

How Hosting Meetings or Incentives on Barge or River Cruises Can Save Time and Money

Hosting a meeting on a river cruise or barge cruise can be a great option.

SPRING, TX, UNITED STATES, February 13, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Benefits include:
Control Your Budget Up Front – Receive all cost with included meals, beverages and excursions.

Choice of a short or long cruise itinerary - featuring the opportunity of visiting several cities without packing and unpacking.

Security and Privacy guaranteed on board – being on a smaller vessel offers better security than on a land based venue. Privacy is easier to control on a water based venue.

Variety of Excursions – in addition to the many excursions offered by the river cruise and luxury barges, private excursions can be set up for your group.

Better Group Participation – as everyone is on these smaller vessels, it is easier to locate everyone for get togethers.

1. Business Meetings / Seminars

A cruise ship is surprisingly a good venue for seminars. Hotels and resorts usually offer limited views. Using a cruise ship for your business seminar will allow your attendees to see different places during their downtime. A ship has a controlled environment, so it is easier for you to get the attendees involved in your business activities and planning sessions.

2. Incentive Travel

If you are looking for new ways to reward high-performing employees, you might try a European river cruise or a barge cruise. These trips are fun and memorable. There are many cruise packages that you can choose from. You can choose a Rhine cruise, a Grand Danube cruise, a Christmas cruise or a French barge cruise, Holland Tulip cruise or a cruise in Italy or in Great Britain. As an incentive, a barge or river cruises represent an expensive looking reward that makes the recipient feel that he is valued.

So, if you are trying to increase your sales, try an incentive river or barge cruise as a reward.
