Created 11 years ago, the SEN Awards single out YPO members who are instilling change in their communities and companies. Each winner and finalist leads a venture which makes a positive impact in areas including health care, equality, education and employment with goals aimed at eradicating poverty and preserving the planet. Mr. Valliappa received this prestigious award for his dedication to his community through Sona Yukti.

Sona Yukti, in partnership with the government of India, focuses on providing life-changing opportunities for the disadvantaged. To date, it has built 50 vocational schools in rural areas of India which provide a skilled workforce for companies that enable workers to lift themselves from poverty. Sona Yukti has helped more than 55,000 economically disadvantaged individuals, the majority women, train for and achieve highly skilled jobs.
