No child should miss out on opportunities to get ahead in life simply because they are more focused on hunger pains than learning in class.”

"No child should miss out on opportunities to get ahead in life simply because they are more focused on hunger pains than learning in class. That is why our team is more than thrilled to help fight hunger by supporting Valley of the Sun United Way's WeekEnd Hunger Backpacks program," shared Kevin Rowe, ESQ.

In addition to the financial contribution, team members of the Phoenix personal injury law firm will team up with AltAZ 93.3 at their studio to help prepare the 1,500 backpack meals. Each meal will be carefully packaged in a discreet plastic bag so that a student can easily carry it home in their backpack.
