asTech® Announces New Partnership with AutoNation to Deliver Nationwide Diagnostic and Vehicle Electronic Repair Service

Plano, TX February 25, 2019 – Repairify, Inc., the makers of the patented asTech® diagnostic device and AutoNation, Inc. (NYSE:AN), America’s largest automotive retailer announce a partnership. The collaboration provides AutoNation with the technology required to perform Pre & Post diagnostic and electronic vehicle service for their 85 collision centers.

AutoNation is the nation’s largest auto retailer. We’re very excited about the partnership and their commitment to be the gold standard of repair providers”

Doug Kelly, CEO of asTech®

asTech’s diagnostic & calibration solutions and technical support team of technicians enables real-time collaboration with collision repair technicians to efficiently diagnose and perform repairs.

The partnership with AutoNation will also provide asTech® with technical insights from thousands of AutoNation technicians working in automotive repair centers who are the first to interact with the latest in-vehicle technologies.

“Pre and Post diagnostic scanning for collision repairs is fast becoming the new standard for the repair process,” said Scott Arnold, AutoNation Executive Vice President Customer Care and Brand Extensions. “The diagnostic process ensures onboard vehicle technology is operating properly after the repair of a collision event, which is essential to customer safety and the reliability of their vehicle. This enhanced technology capability continues to solidify our strategy to be the premier retailer and distributor of parts and professional repair services in the collision repair industry.”

“AutoNation is the nation’s largest auto retailer. We’re very excited about the partnership and their commitment to be the gold standard of repair providers,” said Doug Kelly, CEO of asTech® “AutoNation’s expertise and vision provide an invaluable contribution to maintaining our position as an industry leader.
