

VREF Aircraft Reference Value & Appraisal Service Announces Partnership with AIC Title Service for VREF Verified Reports

VREF and AIC are excited to be offering a comprehensive report that includes both an aircraft's value statement as well as its title records.

CHICAGO, IL, USA, March 4, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- VREF Aircraft Reference Value & Appraisal Services Announces Partnership with AIC Title Service for VREF Verified Reports.

VREF Aircraft Reference Value & Appraisal Services, the leading provider of aircraft valuations, celebrates its 25th Anniversary by announcing a strategic partnership with AIC Title Service (AIC).

VREF and AIC are excited to be offering a comprehensive report that includes both an aircraft's value statement as well as its title records.

VREF Verified Reports provide buyers and sellers of aircrafts with a comprehensive report that features critical information on the value of a specific aircraft by equipment and serial number. Now, thanks to its partnership with AIC, these reports will also include airframe title, including 337's, along with engine and propeller searches to produce one report with VREF.

“We couldn’t be more excited about the collaboration with AIC for the creation of our reports. It is a win-win for aviation, and AIC has proven itself to be a leader in implementing technology to support its products, services and clients,” said Jason Zilberbrand, VREF President and CTO. “This partnership will allow for a seamless integration into VREF’s new platform, which is in current development.”

“VREF Verified Reports has long been known in the industry as the ‘CarFax’ of aviation,” said Clay Healey, President of AIC Title Services. “We are proud to partner with VREF to provide our customers a one stop shop to find the values of an aircraft and its equipment, as well as its title records, including 337s.”
