Our Global Conference Series has become an annual event in the risk manager's calendar - our aim is to provide exceptional, pioneering speakers who raise issues and stimulate discussion about risk”

Keith Ricketts, Vice President of Global Marketing, Sword GRC

Lynn Brewer is the CEO and Founder of The Integrity Institute® and the visionary and inspiration behind The Integrity Index - a new corporate rating system based on 12 years' research and analysis of nearly 1,000,000 financial statements that can predict corporate failures 1-2 years in advance with 83% accuracy.

Washington Mutual and many others, foreshadowing the 2007-2008 financial crash. Keith Ricketts, Vice President of Global Marketing at Sword GRC said; “Our Global Conference Series has become an annual event in the risk manager's calendar. Our aim is always to provide exceptional, pioneering speakers in their field who raise issues and stimulate discussion about risk and how it permeates every area of our working lives. Lynn's visionary work provides an excellent stimulus for delegates at our event to challenge their ideas about enterprise operational and financial risk and take the opportunity to examine how they tackle today's changing – and challenging landscape.

“We will be also setting out the future for our Sword GRC Platform that delivers a varied range of solutions that support better business decisions. They provide a consolidated, single view of risk to efficiently address the most critical issues and elevate risk management as a new source of competitive advantage.”
