

Diplomats from 15 Nations Gathered to Launch the Global Ambassador's Journal, Special Edition 2019

International Union of Bilateral Chambers of Commerce and Industry acknowledged diplomats for their contribution in the worldwide magazine

WASHINGTON, DC, USA, March 6, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Members of the diplomatic corps in Washington, DC gathered to acknowledge several Ambassadors who have contributed to the Global Ambassador's Journal, Vol. III, Special Edition 2019 (www.globalambassadorsjournal.com)

The Global Ambassador's Journal is a specialized magazine indexed by the U.S. Library of Congress and published under the aegis the International Union of Bilateral Chambers of Commerce and Industry. Global Ambassador's Journal is the first magazine of an international organization to be devoted solely to the publication of articles and studies by worldwide diplomats focusing on diplomacy and international relations. Published only two times a year, Unlike other magazines where you are restricted by the questions asked in the form of interviews, Global Ambassador's Journal is the Voice of International Diplomacy. This is your voice.”

Isabelle Vladoiu - Editor-in-chief

each issue features exclusive articles by the highest ranking diplomats of each country sharing valuable information for the international business communities.

Characterized by diversity, the publication brings together current and former ambassadors from different corners of the world who expressed the will to become a voice for their countries. The ambassadors are thus given the opportunity to share their ideas, challenges, the resilience of their countries, and the joy of success.

Included in this special edition were: H.E. Majid Bouguerra, Ambassador of of Algeria to the United States of America; H.E. Hynek Kmonicek, Ambassador of Czech Republic to the United States of America; H.E. Francisco Carrión Mena, Ambassador of Ecuador to the United States of America; H.E. Jānis Sīlis, Ambassador of the Republic of Latvia to Ireland; H.E.
