

Training Magazine Recognizes American Fidelity for 15th Consecutive Year Company Ranks No. 98 on Training Top 125

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK, USA, March 8, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- American Fidelity has made the Training Magazine Top 125 list for the 15th consecutive year. The list recognizes companies that provide excellent training and development programs for their Colleagues.

“We’re in time of great change in the way we work, similar to when computers and then the internet became common in the workplace. Now robotics and AI are becoming the standard, giving our Colleagues more time to focus on higher-level tasks and service,” said David McLaughlin, training manager. “Keeping your skills fresh is vital for adapting to these changes and serving our Customers and policyholders.”

American Fidelity Colleagues

American Fidelity Colleagues have access to a career development specialist, leadership development classes, mentorship opportunities, on-site classes through Oklahoma City Community College, tuition reimbursement, online training and Company-specific certification programs.

The Training Top 125 ranking is based on myriad benchmarking stats including: total training budget, percentage of payroll, number of training hours per employee program, hours of training per employee annually, detailed formal programs, learning goals, Kirkpatrick Level 3 and 4 evaluation and business outcomes measurement. The ranking is determined by assessing a range of qualitative and quantitative factors, including financial investment in employee development, the scope of development programs, how closely such development efforts are linked to business goals and objectives and the results they achieve.
