with the introduction of Marriot Bonvoy, loyalty members have the added advantage of earning and redeeming points across the entire Marriot Portfolio”
Karim Tayach

Marriot Bonvoy replaces Marriott Rewards, The Ritz-Carlton Rewards and Starwood Preferred Guest (SPG) and is built on the belief that travel enriches us all and has the power to enrich the world. Membership of replaced programs is automatically transferred to Marriot Bonvoy.

“With our enviable location overlooking the glistening waters of the Indian Ocean the Ritz-Carlton, Bali provides an unparalleled and unforgettable guest experience, and with the introduction of Marriot Bonvoy, loyalty members have the added advantage of earning and redeeming points across the entire Marriot Portfolio,” says General Manager, Karim Tayach.

Well known as the Island of the Gods, Bali is famed for its palm fringed beaches, fascinating culture, strong spirituality and ancient healing practices, all of which are channelled into a range of inspiring resort activities. Complimentary Sunrise Yoga classes overlooking the sapphire sea, tranquil meditation sessions at dusk and fun Surf Initiation lessons are all complimentary to loyalty members. As is access to the Hydro Vital Pool, a unique and indulgent form of hydrotherapy. Nestled into lush jungle scenery deep within the Ritz-Carlton Bali Spa, the Hydro Vital Pool is gently heated and fitted with powerful jets and water features which massage different areas of the body in a powerful and rejuvenating water healing experience. Families with small children will be delighted with complimentary access to Ritz Kids which offers a range of engaging and immersive experiences. Young travellers will love the opportunity to join turtle conservations projects, enjoy fun arts and crafts, music and dance lessons, kite flying and endless water games in the fully-supervised Ritz Kids swimming pool.

For those wishing to learn more about the island and its unique heritage, The Ritz-Carlton Bali offers an inspired range of culture-based activities (charges apply) from Balinese Cooking Classes to Soul Purification Rituals. The unique Sarong Concierge Program introduces authentic Balinese culture through its hand-woven textiles in a half-day journey that includes a fascinating visit to an artisan workshop. Customized land tours can also be organized through The Ritz-Carlton concierge to take in some of the most incredible sites in Bali, from steeply terraced rice fields to verdant rainforest, historic temples and traditional villages.
