abode has been recognized as a Best Home Security System of 2019 by U.S. News & World Report's 360 Reviews team for abode's Essentials Starter Kit and iota.

WASHINGTON D.C., UNITED STATES, March 18, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Washington DC – March 18, 2019 – abode has been recognized as a Best Home Security System of 2019 by U.S. News & World Report's 360 Reviews team.

U.S. News' new guide features in-depth information on choosing a home security system and covers a range of options, from cost and features to length-of-contract and size of the network.

“We’re thrilled to have been chosen as the Best Overall DIY Security Solution by the U.S. News & World Report 360 Reviews team,” said Chris Carney, CEO of abode. “Our two solutions, the abode Essentials Starter Kit and abode iota were developed to put the power back into the hands of the consumer. We allow them to build the smart home security system that best fits their needs and do so without locking them into any long-term contracts. We’re the only solution available offering on-demand professional monitoring to customers who need an extra layer of security from time to time and we remain committed to building out our extensive list of compatible smart home sensors and devices to provide best-in-class interoperability.”
