"He's fantastic" - Jimmy Page

ASHEVILLE, NC, USA, March 17, 2019 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The long awaited debut album by Steve Rodgers released in 2017 was well worth that wait! With eleven tracks in total, Steve opens with his first single "I Will Grow" and his second single, the title track from the album, "Head Up High." As you listen through all the tracks you will find this album is both uplifting and emotive at the same time. Steve Rodgers writes from experience and from the heart so expect a truly personal experience.

"Great singing and songwriting - I'm impressed" - Roger Taylor of Queen

Steve Rodgers, singer songwriter, completed recording his much anticipated first album, released in 2018 and produced by Ken Nelson (Coldplay, Snow Patrol, Paolo Nutini) mixed by Adrian Bushby (Foo Fighters, Muse). His songs reflect his passion for life's depth, mystery and wonder, recorded with his band of like-minded musicians. Critics compare his music to a mix of Jack Johnson, Paolo Nutini and Cat Stevens.

"Steve Rodgers has a sweet, soulful pop voice... His songwriting is also very pop-oriented with lots of wistful piano and subtle guitar. 'Head Up High' is a solid debut by a talented artist." - Blues Rock Review

At 14 he began to write his own songs on guitar and piano. He started a band with his friends at 17, Lost Sons of Davros. From the Lost Sons came Boa who created two great albums - their first single "Duvet" was the title track to the Japanese multi award-winning animation series Manga "Lain - Serial Xperiments." They toured the States, the UK and after much enjoyment, Steve decided to follow his own path.

"Blessed with a powerful, melodic Bluesy voice, Rodgers kept the ever growing crowd transfixed throughout his set!" - Metro Arena, Newcastle

"Steve Rodgers was exceptional! His acoustic and electric guitar playing is inventive and rhythmic. His songwriting is thoughtful, intriguing and at times simply joyful. His voice is superb - expressive, soulful, powerful, subtle and effortlessly dynamic. His pitch and inflections impeccable...even when weaving in and out of complex cadences..." - Mick Burgess Chronicle Live
